Charming 3-bedroom, 1-bath farmhouse nestled on a spacious lot in the peaceful village of Eureka, just outside of St. Johns. This home offers a cozy, country feel with modern conveniences, including natural gas and access to the St. Johns school system. The main floor features a large country kitchen with an adjacent dining room, a spacious living room, and a convenient main-floor bedroom. Enter through a welcoming sitting room at the front or through the back entryway. Upstairs, you'll find two additional bedrooms with ample storage throughout. Enjoy the extra space of a detached 1-car garage with an attic room, perfect for storage or a potential hobby space. The partial basement, with an outdoor entry, adds even more versatility. All within a short drive to the shopping and amenities of the Lansing area. This farmhouse is a perfect blend of rural charm and suburban convenience!
